Day 1: Hotel Voi Safari Lodge, Tsavo East National Park

Bushy grasslands and open plains alternate with semi-arid acacia scrub and woodlands in this Park which is renowned for some of the largest elephant and buffalo herds in Kenya. Together with the arid environment and red dust these create spectacular photo opportunities. Tsavo East is recognised as one of the last remaining of wilderness and biodiversity strongholds on Earth. Natural attractions include the Galana River and Lugard's Falls, the Yatta Plateau – which is the remnants of a massive lava flow and Mudanda Rock – the natural vantage point which overlooks a much visited and photographed drinking hole. The south of the park is the busier but it is still remarkably quiet while north of Galana is a true wilderness where private operators offer camel safaris.

Day Itinerary

An early morning departure takes you south down the coast, through Mombasa and then towards Voi, capital of the region. Lying at the base of Voi Mountain, a massive fortress of rock named after the town, it provides a gateway into Tsavo East National Park. This together with neighbouring Tsavo West, forms the largest of Kenya's parks. Spotting game as you go, you'll reach Voi safari Lodge in time for lunch. In the vast expanse of Tsavo East with the scenic 300 kilometre long Yatta Plateau in the background, this comfortable lodge offers spectacular views of the park and its multitude of wildlife. Leave after lunch and continue with game drive as you head to the gate. Leave the park and drive on Nairobi-Mombasa highway to reach your hotel by late evening.
