Day 1: OI Tukai Lodge, Amboseli National Park

The landscape of Amboseli is dominated by the snow cap of Mount Kilimanjaro, open plains, acacia woodland, swamps and the massif of Ol Doinyo Orok. Renowned for its excellent Masaai giraffe, elephant, lion and cheetah viewing and not surprisingly it is one of Kenya most popular parks. The birding is excellent especially near the lakes and swamps. The park is famous for being the best place in Africa to get close to free-ranging elephants among other wildlife species. Other attraction of the park includes opportunities to meet the Maasai people and also offers spectacular views of Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest free-standing mountain in the world.

Day Itinerary

Leaving the Nairobi hustle and bustle behind, you head south across the beautiful and seemingly never ending - Athi plains and arrive at the colourful town of Emali. Here, you'll then turn west to Amboseli National Park at the foot of majestic Mount Kilimanjaro, home to a wealth of wildlife but particularly known for its elephants. By lunchtime you'll reach your lodge in the heart of the park and featuring unique architecture reminiscent of a Maasai Village and, of course, dramatic views of Africa's highest mountain. OI Tukai Lodge - Full board

Overnight: Ol Tukai Lodge View iBrochure

Ol Tukai Lodge is one of the best spots to watch elephant with the backdrop of Africa's highest mountain, Mount Kilimanjaro.

Day 2: Kilaguni Serena Safari Lodge, Tsavo West National Park

Tsavo West offers a spectacular and extremely varied natural landscape, including volcanic cones, rocky outcrops and lava flows, mountains, stream forests, lakes or wooded meadows. Among the main attractions are Mzima Springs (the main source of the Tsavo River), Chaimu Crater and Roaring Rocks, two extraordinary views.

Day Itinerary

A morning departure after breakfast takes you east, across the spectacular Shetani lava flow, reminder of the molten outpouring that spilled down the scenic slopes of the nearby Chyulu Hills over the last three centuries. A zigzagging road through scrub thorn and acacia leads you into Tsavo West National Park which, together with Tsavo East, forms the largest of Kenya's parks. Spotting game as you go, by lunchtime you'll reach Kilaguni Lodge - the first wildlife lodge built in a Kenya national park and home to a myriad of birdlife and an actively visited waterhole. Kilaguni Serena Lodge - Full board

Overnight: Kilaguni Serena Safari Lodge

In the land of lions and lava Superbly situated in the lee of Mount Kilimanjaro and sheltered by the volcanic splendour of the Chyulu Hills, this classic stone-built lodge overlooks its own water hole, which is visited daily by elephants, buffalos and a wide variety of plains game. One of the first lodges ever to be built in a national park, the lodge is cool, tranquil and hushed for optimum game-viewing. It is also ideally placed for visits to all the park's prime attractions.

Day 3: Salt Lick Safari Lodge, Taita Hills Wildlife Sanctuary

Situated at the foot of the Taita Hills, bordering Tsavo West National Park, Taita Hills Wildlife Sanctuary is a privately owned wildlife sanctuary in Kenya. It features beautiful wild scenery, luxury lodges, unique flora, abundant fauna and fascinating culture. Taita Hills Wildlife Sanctuary provides visitors with a wonderful opportunity to soak up the magnificent landscape featuring endless grass plains, woodland habitats and panoramic views of the picturesque Taita Hills. The sanctuary offers visitors the fantastic selection of exciting wilderness activities such as wild and secluded eco-safaris, day trips to local authentic villages, and interesting guided nature walks. It is home to a wide variety of wildlife including: African elephant, leopard, lion, cheetah, giraffe, zebra, hartebeest, impala, waterbuck, cape buffalo as well as over 300 species of birds.

Day Itinerary

Head out on a game drive in Tsavo West National Park, one of Kenya's original national parks proclaimed in 1948, and known for its red coloured elephants. You may visit Mzima Springs, hidden in a clump of acacia and palms. Originating from the top of Kilimanjaro, this water is home to fish, crocodiles, and hippo - all visible from a unique underwater observation post. Spotting game as you go, by lunchtime you'll reach Salt Lick Lodge, located just outside the park on a private game sanctuary. This unique and luxurious lodge is a series of rondavels raised on concrete stilts and connected by walkways, overlooking a salt lick and water-hole frequented by a myriad of game, including large herds of elephant. Salt Lick Lodge - Full board

Overnight: Salt Lick Safari Lodge

Located in the heart of the private Taita Hills Sanctuary, bordering Tsavo West National Park in south-eastern Kenya, Sarova Salt Lick Game Lodge is a truly unique concept consisting of 96 rooms elevated on stilts, each overlooking a waterhole and linked by suspended walkways.

Day 4: End of Itinerary

Day Itinerary

Leaving Taita Hills Game sanctuary after breakfast, you travel east; in the shadow of the rugged 7,000- foot high Taita Hills, to the town of Voi, capital of this region. You'll head across the Taru Desert, wild and waterless until you reach Mariakani, where the scrub bush begins to give way to palm groves just a hint of what lies ahead. Within a short while you'll pass through Mombasa and get a glimpse of its busy port as you travel north, reaching your luxury hotel overlooking the incredible white sand beaches and indigo blue waters of the Indian Ocean by lunchtime.

Travel Information

Good to know before leaving:

To discover all the beauty of Kenya and to appreciate its wonderful diversity, long journeys are sometimes unavoidable. Also, we ask you to make sure that the proposed stay corresponds to your wishes in terms of pace of travel and distance traveled.

International flights are not included in the price.

It would be cheaper for you to book your international flights yourself. Generally, you will find lower rates on the internet than those that we can offer.

However, we are more than happy to book the domestic flights for you - with a minimum commission.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you encounter any problems with the booking of your international flights or if you have any questions concerning the transport.

Insurance:

We strongly advise you to buy one from the insurer of your choice before your departure, whether it is a cancellation insurance only, repatriation assistance, or multi-risk.

Additional remarks

- We may have to re-route the itinerary or accommodate in similar lodges in case of non-availability.
- Prices for domestic flights, airport taxes or park fees may be changed without prior notice. This is beyond our control and any increase levied will be passed to you.

Terms and Conditions

Pollmans Tours & Safaris - Terms and Conditions

Payments

100% payment is required by Pollman's Tours & Safaris Ltd, on confirmation of the service that is to be provided. There may be variances to these terms according to individual circumstances.

The balance is to be paid no later than 90 days prior to the date of commencement. When bookings are made less than 90 days prior to the departure date, full payment is required immediately on written confirmation. A booking is considered confirmed when an invoice is issued. If payments are not received within the above time-scale, Alpha Travel/ the Supplier reserves the right to cancel the tour which has been booked and retain any deposit received, to offset against expenses incurred in the booking of such tour.

Terms of Cancellation

The following cancellation charges are applicable. Should cancellation occur, a written notification is immediately required to advise this to Pollman's Tours & Safaris Ltd. In many instances, cancellation charges are set by the Suppliers based on their contracts with us. As many of these contracts fall under laws and jurisdiction of African courts, cancellation fees are enforceable based on the laws of those contracts. We strongly recommend that clients are advised to purchase travel insurance.

A cancellation includes any reduction of services including reduction of the number of participants, reduction of the length of travel, removal of any specific services from the overall tour package or change of services where specific Suppliers will charge cancellation fees. In the event that travellers need to change their travel dates, we will make every effort to accommodate the changes but Suppliers may still charge cancellation fees that will be passed on to the agent. In the case of date changes, subsequent cancellations will be charged based on the original departure date.

Cancellation charges are calculated as follows:

- ◇ Over 90 days before the departure date: loss of deposit.
- ◇ 89-60 days before the departure date: 30% of the tour price.
- ◇ 59-45 days before the departure date: 50% of the tour price.

◇ 44-25 days before the departure date: 75% of the tour price.

◇ Less than 24 days before the departure date or no-show: 100% of the tour price.

In some cases, Suppliers may impose stricter cancellation policies than those shown. In those cases, we will advise the agents before the booking is accepted.
